

PRE-SHIFT SCREENING FOR CORONAVIRUS SYMPTOMS

A precaution that many organizations should take is to screen employees before every shift to inquire whether they are experiencing coronavirus symptoms.

Some COVID-19 symptoms to check for include:

Sore Throat

Fever

Headache

Coughing

Difficulty Breathing

If employees report any of these symptoms it is crucial that they go into self-isolation immediately.